Udyam Digital: prototype architecture

Gemini asks about needs and proposes catalogue products after separate consent. Local rules validate every price and service. Government registries, partner operations and provider completion use the supplied synthetic demo environment.

Production gates: authenticated roles, encrypted storage, serviceability checks and signed provider integrations.